

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. CODE OF CONDUCT

- 1.1 The Code of Conduct (“Code”) relates to XRF Scientific Ltd (“the Company”) and, where relevant, operates in conjunction with all other policies relating to minimum standards of behaviour, procedures and conduct in the workplace, the Contract of Employment or Contract for Services.

2. COMMENCEMENT OF THE CODE

- 2.1 This Code will commence from 1 July 2017. It replaces all other codes of conduct of the Company, if any (whether written or not).

3. SCOPE

- 3.1 The Code applies to all employees, agents and contractors (including temporary contractors) of the Company, collectively referred to as “workplace participants”.
- 3.2 The Code does not form part of any person’s contract of employment. Nor does it form part of any other workplace participant’s contract for services.

4. PURPOSE

- 4.1 The Company recognises the importance of a work environment which actively promotes best practice. The purpose of this Code is to describe the standards of behaviour and conduct expected from workplace participants in their dealings with customers, suppliers, clients, co-workers, management and the general public at all times during their engagement with the Company.
- 4.2 The Company expects all workplace participants to observe the standards set out in this Code. Compliance with this Code is expected and non-compliance may result in disciplinary action, including the termination of employment or contract for services.

5. THE CODE REQUIREMENTS

- 5.1 All workplace participants are expected to observe the highest standards of ethics, integrity and behaviour during the course of their employment or engagement with the Company. This Code provides an overview of the Company’s fundamental business values. It is by no means exhaustive, but summarises some of the Company’s most important policies, which are based on standards that underline business ethics and professional integrity. These standards apply to all workplace participants.
- 5.2 As representatives of the Company, all workplace participants are expected to conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner and observe the following standards of behaviour both inside the workplace and outside the workplace where the workplace participant can be perceived as representing the Company.
- (a) Comply with all laws, policies, procedures, rules, regulations and contracts.
 - (b) Comply with all lawful and reasonable directions from the Company.
 - (c) Be honest and fair in dealings with customers, clients, suppliers, co-workers, management and the general public.
 - (d) Display the appropriate image of professionalism at the workplace. Wear the required uniform, safety equipment or work clothes, and if a workplace participant wears their own clothes, ensure their appearance is neat and tidy.

- (e) Treat customers, clients, suppliers, co-workers, company management and the general public in a non-discriminatory manner with proper regard for their rights and dignity. In this regard, discrimination, victimisation or harassment based on a person's race, colour, religion, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy or potential pregnancy, union membership or non-membership, mental or physical disability, or any other classification protected by law will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action including termination of employment or contract for service.
- (f) Promptly report any violations of law, ethical principles, policies and this Code.
- (g) Maintain punctuality. If a workplace participant is late or cannot report for work, please telephone and let the appropriate supervisor or manager know as soon as possible.
- (h) If a workplace participant is required to leave the work premises for personal reasons they should advise the appropriate supervisor or manager as soon as possible.
- (i) Do not use work time for private gain. Ensure all personal activities including phone calls and meetings are arranged outside of working hours.
- (j) The Company has a legitimate interest in the private activities of workplace participants where such activities may bring disrepute upon the Company in its relationships with customers, clients, suppliers, and the general public at large. In the event where the reputation of the Company has been compromised, an investigation will be undertaken with the workplace participant involved, and could result in discipline up to and including termination of employment or contract for service.
- (k) Maintain and develop the knowledge and skills necessary to carry out duties and responsibilities in the role in which workplace participants are engaged.
- (l) Observe health and safety policies and obligations, and co-operate with all procedures and initiatives taken by the Company in the interests of work health and safety.
- (m) Be truthful in all dealings with persons encountered at the workplace. Workplace participants must not make false or misleading declarations during the performance of their duties or when providing services on behalf of the Company. A declaration can be considered to be misleading if information is omitted or presented in a manner that enables a misleading view of the situation to be formed. Failure to comply with reporting requirements and falsifying records and other documents may lead to discipline.
- (n) Refrain from any form of conduct which may cause any reasonable person unwarranted offence or embarrassment or give rise to the reasonable suspicion or appearance of improper conduct or biased performance.
- (o) Not act for an improper or ulterior purpose to the detriment (whether perceived or actual) of the Company.
- (p) Workplace participants must not abuse the advantages of their position for private purposes, or solicit or accept any gift or benefit in connection with their employment or engagement which might compromise, or be seen to compromise their integrity or the Company's reputation.
- (q) Respect the Company's ownership of all of its property including but not limited to funds, equipment, technology, supplies, books, records and confidential information (however described).
- (r) Maintain during employment with the Company and after the termination of employment, the confidentiality of any confidential information, records or other materials acquired during the employment with the Company.
- (s) While employed at the Company, not accept any employment with another organisation that is a supplier or competitor of the Company or any other employment that is in conflict with your position at the Company without prior approval from the appropriate manager.
- (t) Not make any unauthorised statements to the media about the Company's business (requests for media statements should be referred to the appropriate manager).
- (u) Do not use any form of physical or verbal abuse in the workplace.

- (v) Do not use inappropriate language in the workplace.
- (w) Do not perform work in circumstances where there is a risk that may affect the workplace participants' ability to perform their role safely or which may compromise the health and safety of others.
- (x) Workplace participants are to report any condition which may affect their ability to perform their role safely and accurately to the appropriate supervisor or manager as soon as possible.
- (y) Do not smoke during working hours unless it is during prescribed breaks and within designated areas.
- (z) No workplace participant is to upload, download, use, retrieve or access any materials which are deemed inappropriate and/or offensive. This includes, but is not limited to, materials of a sexual or illegal nature, materials which involve a violation of copyright, and materials deemed as defamatory or that could adversely affect the Company's reputation.

6. ISSUES FOR MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS

6.1 Managers and supervisors should:

- (a) Promote a team spirit.
- (b) Maintain confidentiality so far as is reasonably practicable when conducting investigations into grievances and disputes.
- (c) Avoid bias in decision making.
- (d) Ensure compliance with procedures when carrying out counselling and discipline.
- (e) Exercise objectivity when administering rewards or discipline.
- (f) Not condone, permit, or fail to report any breaches of the Code as outlined above by workplace participants under their supervision.

7. BREACHES OF THIS CODE

7.1 A breach of this Code may lead to disciplinary action including, but not limited to, termination of employment or services.

Variation

XRF Scientific Ltd reserves the right to vary this policy from time to time.

Policy Revision

Policy Authorised by: Vance Stazzonelli

Title: CEO

Policy Maintained by: Vance Stazzonelli

Title: CEO

Issue Date: 1 July 2017

Next review date: 30 June 2019

Acknowledgement

I acknowledge that I have read this policy and will comply where applicable with any of the policy content and procedures. Further, I acknowledge that I may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include termination, where I fail to comply with this policy.

Employee name:

Employee signature:

Date: